

Thank you for deciding to donate to the Australian Wildlife Conservancy.

Your donation will help AWC implement large-scale, practical conservation programs around Australia to provide a more secure future for our threatened animals and their habitats, before our unique wildlife is lost forever.

Option 1 - Become a regular monthly donor

One of the most cost-effective ways to support AWC is to become a regular monthly donor. All donations are tax deductible and go directly to where it is needed most. Over 80% of AWC's total expenditure is incurred on conservation with less than 20% spent on fundraising and administration combined. A tax deductible receipt will be forwarded to you at the end of each financial year.

Option 2 - Make a single donation

If you can not commit an ongoing donation right now, you can still make a single tax deductible donation of an amount of your choice. A tax deductible receipt will be posted to you shortly after making your single donation.
